DO THEY MISS ME AT HOME?

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1852, by Oliver Ditson, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the District of Massachusetts.

Ad lib.

meas-ure, To know that they miss'd me at home, To know that they miss'd me at home.

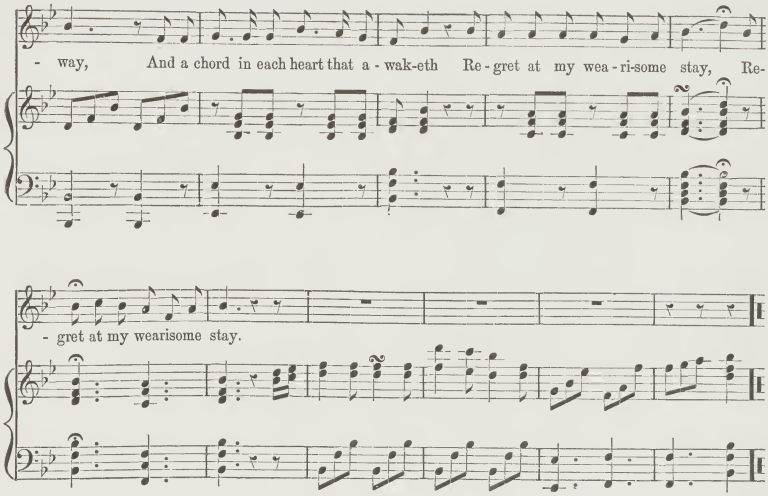
When twi-light ap-proach-es, the sigh that I tar-ry so long? And is there a chord in the mu - - - sic That's miss'd when my voice is a -



3

Do they set me a chair near the table
When ev'ning's home pleasures are nigh,
When the candles are lit in the parlor,
And the stars in the calm azure sky?
And when the "good nights" are repeated,
And all lay them down to their sleep,
Do they think of the absent, and waft me
A whispered "good night" while they weep?

4

Do they miss me at home— do they miss me
At morning, at noon, or at night?
And lingers one gloomy shade round them,
That only my presence can light?
Are joys less invitingly welcome,
And pleasures less hale than before,
Because one is missed from the circle,
Because I am with them no more?
